Christmas Edition

Issue 4: Christmas 2011

The tis Students Christmas Party

Last night we pulled out all the stops for our annual Students Christmas Party! Food, drink, games, music, a Murder Mystery and a visit from our mystery guest Father Christmas also known as Ricardo from Venezuela! If you were here at this time last year, you might remember his brother Federico was Father Christmas - it's a family decision. Thanks to JP for a great party and the staff for the Murder Mystery and to all of our students that came along and made it a night to remember.

Merry Christmas Everyone!

Good Luck tis Cambridge Exam Students!

With the Cambridge Exams looming, our Cambridge exam students have been working hard to prepare. Our dedicated teachers Alan and Gill have been pulling out all the stops to make sure the students are ready. We've got some great Candidates this year and we're sure that they will pass with *flying colours tis teacher Tom Directs short film!

Our very own teacher Tom previewed his new Short Film 'Dog Collar * Criminal' this week. The film is based on a true story about a local Vicar who led a double life of preaching and crime in the 1970's. He has already had great success with Short Films, particularly 'La Legende Dali'.

Congratulations Tom!

Useful vocab

* The term 'Dog Collar' refers to the White Collar that priests and vicars wear .

A must see film this Christmas...

Arthur Christmas is a wonderful Christmas Tale. It features the British county of Cornwall - our next door neighbours! As well as voices of famous British actors James McAvoy, Bill Nighy, Hugh Laurie, Imelda Staunton and Jim Broadbent.
